A Reading from the Holy Gospel According to Luke

It was about noon and darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon because of an eclipse of the sun.
Then the veil of the temple was torn down the middle.
Jesus cried out in a loud voice,
    “Father, into your hands I commend my spirit”;
    and when he had said this he breathed his last.

Now there was a virtuous and righteous man named Joseph who,
    though he was a member of the council,
    went to Pilate and asked for the Body of Jesus.
After he had taken the Body down, he wrapped it in a linen cloth and laid him in a rock-hewn tomb in which no one had yet been buried.
