"Let us remember that it is precisely at times such as this that the Church throughout her history has most brilliantly shone the light of Christ. Our Lord is now giving us this opportunity to exhibit spiritual excellence through heroic virtue. At a time when we are all feeling the pull of a “me first,” “self-survival” mode to the exclusion of others, our Christian faith calls us precisely to put others first by acts of neighborliness, especially toward those who are most vulnerable.

With profound gratitude to health care workers and researchers, let us keep them in our daily prayers along with those suffering from this virus, all the sick, and our government leaders who are making such critical decisions for the public good at this time. Let us also remember to pray for those who are suffering materially as a result of the impact the current pandemic is having on the economy. Let us turn to our beautiful Blessed Mother, who unceasingly comes to the aid of her children in times of distress such as this." - Archbishop Salvatore J. Cordileone

This Lent we are profoundly reminded that we are called to prayer, fasting and almsgiving. In such a crisis we can become immobile or complacent. As Christians through our Baptism we are disciples like Mary, the first disciple, who gave us a powerful example of discipleship in the midst of suffering. How are we as a disciple of Jesus setting an example of prayer, fasting and almsgiving? Are we encouraging our families, children and youth to join in the sufferings of Christ in special ways during this time? Do we practice gratitude? Are we welcoming? Do we give out of our abundance and sometimes our littleness? Do we fast and not hoard? It is then that the Light of Christ will shine bright.

This Echo/Eco will give you all of the updates from our Office of Faith Formation. Please read and share with your staffs and catechists. We are hoping that while changes were necessary we are still meeting the needs that you have in the parishes. Thank you so very much for the willingness you have shown and the ministry that you are doing.

When we closed catechetical programs for the year we asked that the catechetical materials go home for families to do together. I hope that you are keeping in touch with the families to encourage and help them with this task. Remember to check your textbooks sites for valuable information you can share. You can do email or copies in a letter and send out, post on your webpage or call to keep in touch.

We have cancelled to dinner gathering for Pius X this year. We will miss gathering with so many to celebrate the years of service. But you can still order the awards and we will send them to you to do in the parish. Please see the form in this newsletter.
Changes but still happening!
Adult Confirmation Preparation classes are scheduled for the end of April and we will be doing this remotely. We will send to all who register power point presentations and questions for reflection on the themes to be covered. These will be in English and Spanish. For those who cannot do the classes online we will send them hard copies for them to complete. They will be asked to let us know when they have accomplished reading the materials we have sent them and answer some reflection questions. Once done we will let their contact person in the parish who signed their permission form know that they have completed the class. We still hope for Pentecost Confirmations. That decision will come from the Archbishop.

U. S. Bishops Announce New Abuse Reporting System report bishop abuse.org 800-276-1562 A reporting system accepting sexual misconduct allegations against U.S. bishops and eparchs is now in place, created by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. Called the Catholic Bishops Abuse Reporting Service, or CBAR, the system became operational on March 16. The mechanism incorporates a website and a toll-free telephone number through which individuals can file reports regarding a bishop. (See the website and phone, above.) This service has been created to gather and relay reports of sexual misconduct involving bishops of the United States, and reports of their intentional interference in a sexual abuse investigation. More information about it is online at sfarch.org/how-to-report-suspectedabuse. If you wish to report any other complaints about a bishop, such as theological concerns, liturgical abuses, church closings, priest assignments, and so on, those are beyond the scope of this reporting service and should be made directly to the Archdiocese (info@sfarch.org). For a thorough news story on CBAR, visit Catholic San Francisco newspaper here.

Keep Up-to-date with all that is happening with the Archdiocese of San Francisco.

Our community, Sisters of Social Service, did Sunday Mass together with the link below. While not the same as being in church physically we experienced a great homily and mass. Please let your families know of this and if you have it happening in your parish.

Archdiocesan Website Is Your Information Source and Spiritual Resource sfarch.org/health-alerts Since March 19, California has been living under Executive Order N-33-20 requiring all residents to stay home except for those working in defined “critical infrastructure,” and requiring all people at all times to practice social distancing. The Governor’s order can be read here. To help Catholics understand the impact of this directive on parish life and Catholic practice, Archbishop Salvatore Cordileone has issued a series of messages to the people of the Archdiocese. His messages, and other important documents, can be found on the website (above). Archbishop Cordileone has canceled travel and meetings during this time. He will be celebrating nonpublic Mass in St. Mary’s Cathedral daily (M-F) at 7:30 am; on Saturdays at 8:00 am; and on Sundays: March 29 at 1:00 pm (Spanish); and April 5 (Palm Sunday) at 11:00 am. All of these Masses from the Cathedral are livestreamed. The complete videotape of the Archbishop’s 11:00 am Mass from Sunday March 22, including his important homily, can be viewed here. The text of his March 22 homily can be read on this webpage: sfarch.org/homilies.

Many other parishes are also livestreaming daily and weekend Masses, in which the faithful are invited to participate in their homes. A list of those is at the webpage sfarch.org/livestreams. In addition to livestreamed liturgies, the Archdiocesan website offers online Prayers (sfarch.org/prayers) and Devotionals (sfarch.org/devotionals), and a guide for Keeping the Sabbath Holy at Home (sfarch.org/keeping-the-sabbath).

Dynamic Family Liturgy of the Word Services

Read our passionate (maybe too passionate?) description about why it is so important to send these free mobile device-friendly online services home and how they will teach parents how to pray with their kids. An ideal solution until we are able to gather for Mass again!

What Is Worship@Home?

It is an online resource to help families with children pray together at home while we are unable to gather for Sunday Mass. It is based on and inspired by Sunday Celebrations in the Absence of a Priest: Leader's Guide (promulgated by the U.S. Bishops) and the Directory for Masses with Children (from the Congregation for Divine Worship). It gently coaches parents and their families through the age-appropriate prayer experience, and even makes it a little fun. It is a HUGE opportunity to help families own their faith.

The result is that the faith is not "sticking," and younger generations are leaving the church. Study after study tells us that what makes the difference is the role parents play. So here's the opportunity:

Many families are cooped up in their homes, without much to do. They are bored. In some, kids are bouncing off the walls. Most cannot attend public Mass or any other church services or events. Families are anxious, confused, and worried. Most of us have an even greater need for prayer at this time.

It’s Lent, for heaven's sake! Many parents are not comfortable leading their families in prayer. They have not been equipped or coached well to do so. The best way to learn how to do something is to DO it (with a little coaching support).

What if the Holy Spirit could somehow use this mess we’re in to teach families how to pray together and build up the domestic church?

We're here to answer questions by phone or email, and we want to partner with you to coach your families. If you can’t get through right away, please be patient and leave us a message. Call 1-844-727-8672 or reply to this email.
Let us take courage and be hope for one another and the world. The beauty of the season of Lent is the invitation to live more freely as ourselves, as the precious ones whom God created so lovingly. Even now we are called to live fully and to trust in the Spirit of God active throughout the world and our own lives.

Join me in reflecting on this beautiful poem titled "Lockdown" written by Fr. Richard Hendrick, OFM, on March 13, 2020.

Yes there is fear.
Yes there is isolation.
Yes there is panic buying.
Yes there is sickness.
Yes there is even death.

But,
They say that in Wuhan after so many years of noise
You can hear the birds again.
They say that after just a few weeks of quiet
The sky is no longer thick with fumes
But blue and grey and clear.

They say that in the streets of Assisi
People are singing to each other across the empty squares, keeping their windows open so that those who are alone
may hear the sounds of family around them.
They say that a hotel in the West of Ireland
Is offering free meals and delivery to the housebound.

Today a young woman I know is busy spreading fliers with her number through the neighbourhood
So that the elders may have someone to call on.
Today Churches, Synagogues, Mosques and Temples
are preparing to welcome and shelter the homeless,
the sick, the weary.

All over the world people are slowing down and reflecting
All over the world people are looking at their neighbours in a new way
All over the world people are waking up to a new reality
To how big we really are.
To how little control we really have.
To what really matters.
To Love.

So we pray and we remember that Yes there is fear.
But there does not have to be hate.
Yes there is isolation.
But there does not have to be loneliness.
Yes there is panic buying.
But there does not have to be meanness.
Yes there is sickness.
But there does not have to be disease of the soul
Yes there is even death.
But there can always be a rebirth of love.

Wake to the choices you make as to how to live now.
Today, breathe.
Listen, behind the factory noises of your panic
The birds are singing again
The sky is cleaning,
Spring is coming,
And we are always encompassed by Love.
Open the windows of your soul
And though you may not be able to touch across the empty square, Sing.
My prayers along with those of my IHM Sisters are with you.

We are here if you need us.
Peace +

The Youth Service Award is for high school seniors who have exemplified a particularly strong dedication to serving your parish community and its programs (ie. Religious Education, Youth Ministry, St Vincent of Paul, schools, etc.). These are the teens that you have seen outstanding leadership skills in and would like to specially honor at the Pius X Awards. Those on this form will be presented with a certificate of recognition. It would be a kind gesture to invite their parents and/or family members to the awards ceremony.
